

Why choose CPCAB?

What makes CPCAB different from – and in our opinion better than – other awarding bodies offering counselling qualifications?

- › CPCAB is the only awarding body run by counsellors for counsellors.
- › CPCAB is a specialist awarding body approved by Ofqual which focuses on the development of counselling as a profession.
- › CPCAB emphasises the importance of:
  - the counselling relationship
  - difference and diversity
  - being staffed by counsellors and psychotherapists who understand the needs of the profession and provide dedicated support to counselling tutors by phone, via annual verification visits and at regular standardisation training events.

› CPCAB provides tutors with extensive web, video and paper-based support.

› CPCAB provides coherent qualification progression routes (L2 - 6) for counsellors and helpers developed from evidence based research.

› CPCAB is actively engaged with developments in the counselling sector.

“very warm, very welcoming, very informative and very reassuring”

“I have yet to meet a more obliging, professional and friendly bunch of people” CPCAB tutors
