

the only awarding body
run by counsellors
for counsellors

Level 6

Diploma in

Therapeutic Counselling

Supervision

(TCSU-L6)

Is this qualification for you?

If you want to train to become a clinical supervisor of counsellors working with clients at service levels A and B, our Diploma in Therapeutic Counselling Supervision is the ideal qualification for you.

To benefit from this qualification you should already hold

- › CPCAB's Level 5 Diploma in Psychotherapeutic Counselling (or its APL and/or APEL equivalent) plus one additional year of supervised clinical experience
- › or CPCAB's Level 4 Diploma in Therapeutic Counselling (or its APL and/or APEL equivalent) plus two additional years of supervised clinical experience
- › you will also need to have supervisees and be working as a counsellor under supervision.

This qualification requires a minimum of 120 Guided learning hours (GLH) to complete successfully.

How do I find out more?

You can find more information about this qualification and a detailed breakdown of its content please go to our website www.cpcab.co.uk or call us on 01458 850350.

What will I gain from this training?

The Diploma in Therapeutic Counselling Supervision will equip you to manage the fundamental aspects of the clinical supervisor's role:

- › providing support and guidance to your supervisees
- › encouraging self review
- › monitoring supervisees' progress
- › managing legal and ethical boundaries
- › developing awareness of the supervision process
- › working with relationship issues which affect the counselling and supervision process.

